2020 Annual Conference Scientific Display Award

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your inquiry concerning the 2020 Annual Conference Scientific Display Award. Enclosed you will find the competition guidelines and application process. Failure to comply with the competition rules will be grounds for disqualification. Please read the rules governing the competition guidelines thoroughly and submit the application to the CSRT Scholarship Committee postmarked no later than October 1, 2020, by 5:00pm

The Scientific Display Awards are:

First place.....	$300.00
Second Place.....	$200.00
Third Place.....	$100.00

The winner, or at least one person from the winning group, must be present during the virtual CSRT Annual Conference to receive the award. Students are responsible for emailing their scientific display prior to the October 1, 2020 deadline. Scientific display presentations that are emailed after the deadline will not be accepted. Displays must be de-identified, meaning, the author's name(s) and the affiliated institution must not be displayed anywhere on the project. Adequate referencing is required to avoid any copyright infringement or plagiarism. Projects that fail to submit appropriate referencing will be disqualified.

Sincerely,

Barbara Kissel, MBA, ARRT, (R), CRT
2019-2020 CSRT President

Objectives and Eligibility Criteria
Application Form

2020 Annual Conference Scientific Display Award

Objectives:

1. Provide an opportunity to radiologic science students, enrolled in approved California schools, to participate in the professional society.
2. Provide a monetary award for creativity while learning and educating the public of topics related to radiologic sciences.
3. Gain recognition of CSRT within the State of California as a leader in radiologic technology education.
4. Promote student interest and motivation in CSRT.

Student Eligibility Criteria (applies to each student):

1. A CSRT member or applying for membership at the time of application (visit csrt.org for membership).
2. Enrolled full-time RT student in a California Department of Public Health approved and JRCERT recognized education program of Radiologic Sciences.
3. All participants may submit only one PowerPoint presentation for the Annual Conference.
4. No more than three participants per presentation.
5. Responsible for requesting his/her own student application forms (one application per presentation.)

Exhibit Eligibility Criteria:

1. Former awarded exhibits may not be re-submitted.
2. Presentations may not have been displayed previously at a CSRT Annual Conference.
3. Presentations must be the original work of the applicant(s) and may not have been commercially prepared. Courtesy recognition will not be allowed.
4. Proof of referencing must be provided on the final slide of the PowerPoint presentation.
5. The author's name(s) and institution must not appear any place on the presentation (this would include faculty/student photos, institution logos or pictures, etc.). If illustrations are used, the names of the institution, logos, faculty/student photos, etc., or any identifying marks must not appear in the presentation.

Grant Procedures:

1. Application forms shall be obtained from the CSRT website.
2. Completed applications shall be emailed or mailed to the CSRT Scholarship Committee (info@csrt.org) postmarked no later than October 1st of the year you apply. Late applications will not be accepted.
3. The Board reserves the right to perform the selection procedures or assign the duties to the Education Committee.
4. The winning recipients will be announced on Friday, November 6th, between 4:00pm and 4:30pm, during the virtual 2020 CSRT Annual Conference's "Student Day." Recipient(s) will be mailed their monetary award the following week.
